Readings for Easter Sunday

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43: Peter affirms that Jesus is the Lord of all, and that those who believe in Him receive forgiveness of sins and new life.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 118: The passage affirms that God's right hand has struck with power and that He is exalted above all, and celebrates the fulfillment of God's plan, especially in the exaltation of the stone that was rejected and its role as the cornerstone.

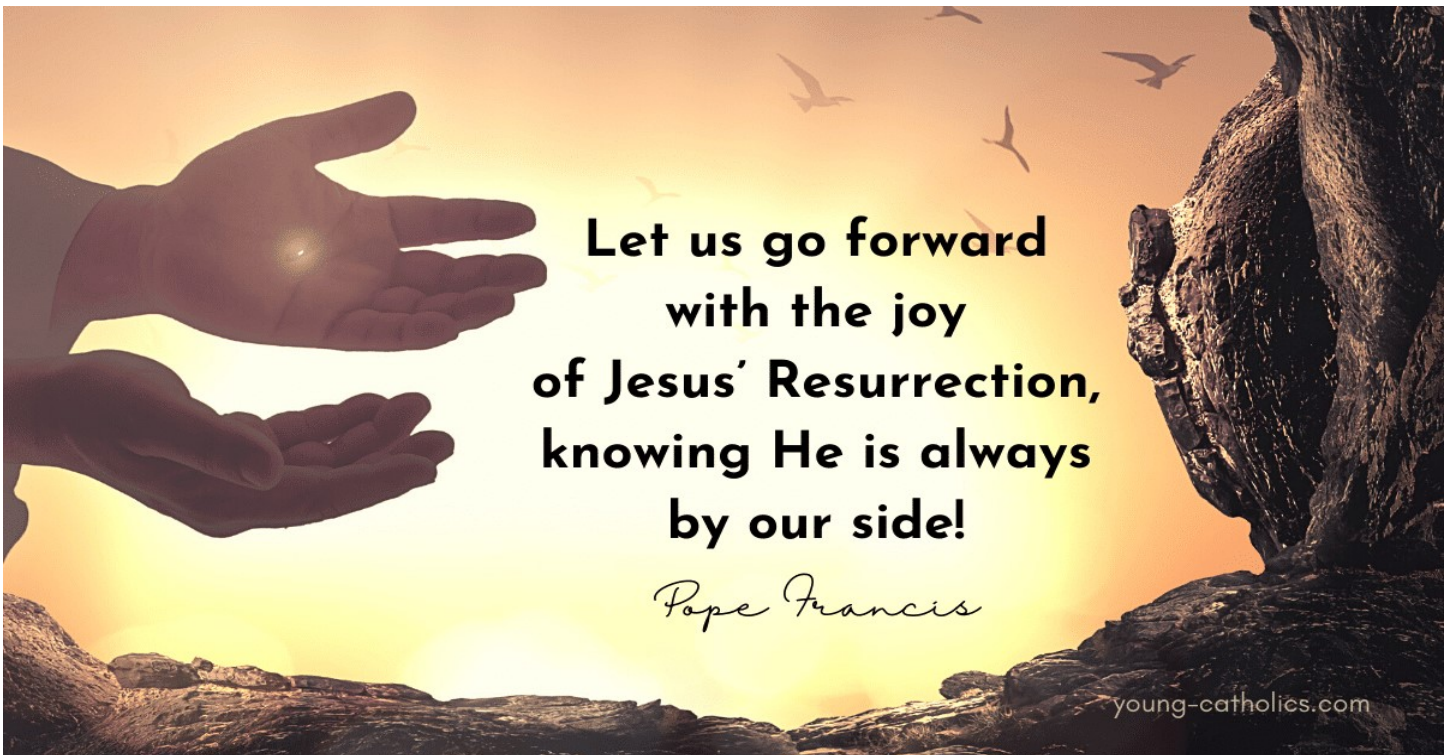

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4 : The passage reminds believers that their lives are hidden with Christ in God and that when Christ appears, they too will appear with Him in glory.

Alternate Second Reading: I Corinthians 5:6b-8: The passage uses the imagery of the Jewish feast of Passover to remind the readers that Christ, their Passover lamb, has been sacrificed, and that they should therefore celebrate the feast with sincerity and truth.

Gospel: John 20:1-9: Mary Magdalene visits Jesus's tomb on the first day of the week and finds the stone removed from the entrance. She runs to tell Peter and the beloved disciple, who both go to the tomb and find it empty with the burial cloths lying there. Although they do not understand what has happened, the beloved disciple believes, as he sees and believes, while Peter remains puzzled.

The Easter readings focus on the goodness, power, and saving work of God throughout history, culminating in the ultimate victory of Jesus over sin and death through his Resurrection. They also emphasize the importance of faith and trust in God, dying to sin and being raised to new life through baptism, and seeking heavenly things rather than earthly ones.

- The Resurrection of Jesus Christ: The Gospel reading proclaims the central event of the Christian faith, the Resurrection of Jesus, which brings hope of new life and triumph over death.
- Death is not the final word: The Resurrection of Jesus assures us that death does not have the final say, and that new life is possible.
- God never abandons us: Even in the midst of suffering and death, God remains with us and offers us hope and comfort.
- New life from death: Through Jesus's Resurrection, new life is possible, even in the face of death and despair.
- How Easter must change our hearts: Easter challenges us to let go of sin and selfishness, and to embrace the new life and hope that Jesus offers.

Let us go forward with the joy of Jesus' Resurrection, knowing He is always
by our side!
