Readings for the Solemnity of All Saints' Day

First Reading - Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14: An angel seals the servants of God before any destruction occurs. A multitude from all nations, wearing white robes, stand before God and the Lamb, having survived great distress.

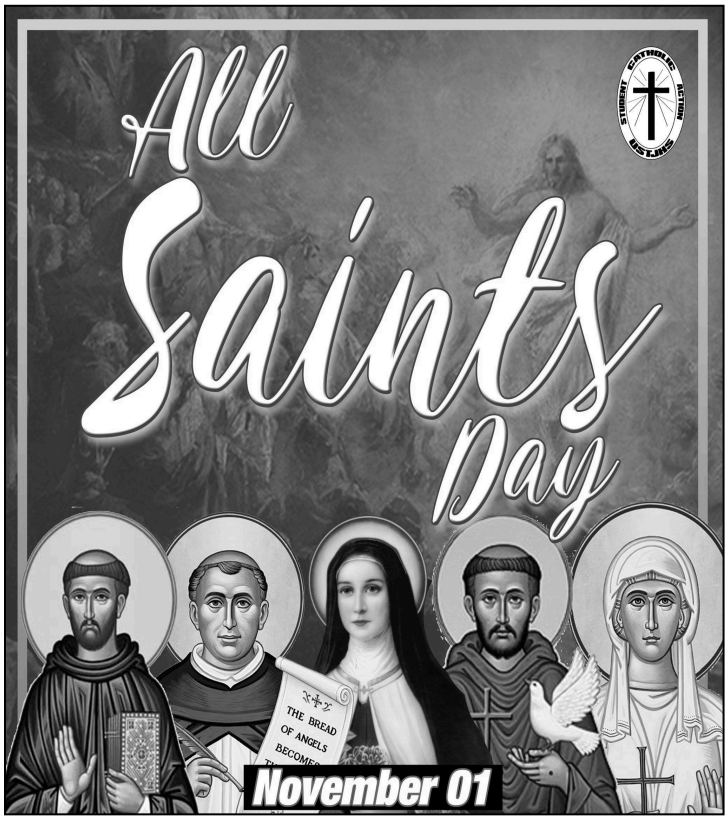

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 24: The Earth belongs to the Lord. Only those with clean hearts and hands can stand in God's presence. They will receive blessings and are the ones truly seeking God.

Second Reading - 1 John 3:1-3: The Father's love makes us his children. The world may not recognize us because it didn't recognize Him. Our future form is unknown, but we'll resemble God and should strive for purity.

Gospel - Matthew 5:1-12a: Jesus gives a sermon known as the Beatitudes, outlining who is blessed in the eyes of God. He says the poor in spirit, mourners, meek, those hungry for righteousness, merciful, pure-hearted, peacemakers, and persecuted are blessed. Each group is promised a specific reward, like inheriting the earth or seeing God.

All Saints Day and All Souls Day are connected. All Saints Day is on November 1st. We honor all the saints in heaven. All Souls Day is on November 2nd. We pray for all the souls in purgatory.
These two days are part of a special time in the Church. Together, they remind us of the Communion of Saints. We remember those in heaven and those who need our prayers.
On All Souls Day, we visit cemeteries and pray for the dead. We ask God to help the souls in purgatory. We believe our prayers can help them reach heaven. It is a time of hope and mercy.

November 2026
focuses on being ready and living faith each day.
The readings remind us to follow good examples, use our gifts well, and care for others.
We are called to stay alert and trust in God's plan.
Jesus is shown as our true king who leads with love and service.
As the Church year ends and a new one begins, the message is clear. Live with purpose, stay awake in faith, and be ready to welcome the Lord with hope.
