Pope Francis' special intentions for the month of OCTOBER:

A Church Open To Everyone

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

ALLELUIA!

The word of the Lord
remains for ever.
This is the word that has been proclaimed to you.

READINGS FOR THE 27th. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading – Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4: “For the vision still has its time, presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint; if it delays, wait for it, it will surely come, it will not be late.”

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 95: “If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.”

Second Reading – 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14: “So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord, nor of me, a prisoner for his sake; but bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.”

Gospel – Luke 17:5-10: “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.”

As disciples, we can't just pretend to follow Christ. True discipleship requires action. Jesus makes it very clear what we are supposed to do. We must love God and each other. We must care for the less fortunate in our midst. Faith also requires a servant's heart. We can't just be people who do really good things. That can become an exercise in ego building. We feel that we are paving our path to heaven through our own actions. But we can't earn God's love. And we don't have to. We are here to serve. Let God do the rest.

And the apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith. ”The Lord replied, “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.”

Viernes 7 de Oct.- Bienaventurada Virgen del Rosario

St. Thérèse of Lisieux lived in late 19th century France. She is also called “The Little Flower of Jesus”. Her mother died when Thérèse was only 4 years old. A few years later, her older sister, who had been like a second mother to her, entered a cloistered Carmelite monastery. This was a great loss to Thérèse, but she later followed in her sister's footsteps and became a Carmelite nun at the age of 15. She was sick throughout her life and died of tuberculosis in 1897 at age 24.

St. Thérèse of Lisieux is known for her simple holiness. She saw the things she suffered as redemptive suffering, from her poor health to the hardness of cloistered life to dryness in prayer. For her, the path to holiness was “doing of the least actions for love”.

Our lady of the Rosary

Many religions use beads to keep track of prayers. Our Rosary, a circle of beads, is like a garland offered to Mary because we pray a prayer on each bead. This well-loved prayer has its roots in the 150 psalms. People who couldn't read began praying 150 Hail Marys instead, the equivalent of three of our modern rosaries covering the original three sets of mysteries.

ORACIÓN DE SAN FRANCISCO DE ASÍS

Señor, hazme instrumento de tu paz.
que donde haya odio, siembre yo amor donde haya injuria, perdón donde haya duda, fe donde haya desesperación, esperanza donde haya sombra, luz donde haya tristeza, alegría

Oh divino Maestro, concédeme que no busque ser consolado, sino consolar que no busque ser comprendido, sino comprender que no busque ser amado, sino amar.
Porque dando es como recibo Perdonando es como Tú me perdonas;
y muriendo en Ti, nazco para la vida eterna.
