Second Reading

Gospel Reading

John 1:29-34

John testifies that Jesus is the Lamb of God, God's own Son.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This Sunday we break from our reading of Matthew's Gospel (the primary Gospel for our current liturgical cycle, Cycle A) to read from John's Gospel. We heard Matthew's account of Jesus' baptism last Sunday, on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Today, we hear John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus as found in John's Gospel. John's Gospel differs from the other Gospels because John does not describe Jesus' baptism by John the Baptist. Instead, John the Baptist announces that he knows that Jesus is the Son of God.

In today's reading, John the Baptist sees Jesus approaching and cries out, giving witness about who Jesus is. In John's testimony he says that he saw the Spirit descend upon Jesus. By this sign, John the Baptist knew that Jesus was the one who is to come after him.

John the Baptist uses two titles for Jesus that are familiar to us. John calls Jesus the "Lamb of God" and the "Son of God." By using these titles, John the Baptist identifies Jesus' ultimate purpose: to redeem sinful humanity.

John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus clearly distinguishes John's baptism from the Baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John baptizes with water; Jesus will baptize with the Holy Spirit. John also puts his practice of baptism in the context of Jesus' ministry. The purpose of John's baptism was to make Jesus known to Israel.

John the Baptist's sense of purpose is clearly identified in this reading: he baptized in order to prepare for and make known the ministry of the One who was to follow. John's witness is an excellent example of what it means to be a disciple. By our Baptism, we are called to make Jesus known to all the world by our words and by the witness of our lives.

OCIA- No class January 28, resuming February 4. Reminder fellow Catholics, OCIA is not just for candidates and catechumens receiving their sacraments, this ministry is for cradle Catholics that want to fill their knowledge from God's Word and fall in love with Him! Join us on Wednesdays at 6:00 pm with dinner! Update: some of our candidates and catechumens are new to our area and parish, so they need practicing Catholics who can be their friend, and especially a sponsor through their journey, not a godparent. If you're willing to give your time to these coming-of-new Catholics, please call 575-491-8263 for more info and sign up!

The next Baptism Class will take place on Tuesday February 10 at 7:00 p.m. @ the Religious Ed Bldg. (711 New York Ave.) *Registration is needed in order to attend this class.

*The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.
To those who accepted Him,
He gave power to become children of God.*

El Verbo se hizo carne, y habitó entre nosotros. A todos los que lo han recibido les ha concedido que fueran hijos de Dios.
